Intro

This past year we've been so busy organising all kinds of stuff that it took way longer than planned to make this Catfight.

But...it also means that this issue is fat! Full with lots of pics from South America and some fine female graff jams that took place in the last few months. In the meanwhile we are already working on the next issue, which will be a 90's special. And it will be so, so, so dope!... F.Lady

Deadline issue #9 December 15th 2008

Send your photos, reactions/suggestions to:
bitchesincontrol [at] hotmail.com

For next issue we really want:

- > pics of female graffiti from the 90's
- > dope pics of one woman wholecars!

Special thanks for your support:

Kif, Ephameron, Jolie, Dask, We B*Girlz, Jee-Nice, Kweekvijver, Sumi, Pussyz Soulfood, S.

Tag Town

This latest book from Martha Cooper is full of inspiring tags from 1963 – 1982. It captures the evolution of the tag in New York in images and in words.

Tag Town also contains rare photos of work in the streets by Jean-Michel Basquiat, Keith Haring and Kenny Scharf, artists whose tag-inspired work helped found the rapidly growing street art movement. The accompanying text is based on interviews with New York graffiti pioneers Blade, Part 1 and Snake 1.

Stylebattle

August 28. 2008

As part of the Catfight Jam at the We B*Girlz Festival, Jolie and Stella organised a Stylebattle in the back-yard of Tacheles.

We decided it should not be 'all girls' but a mix of boys & girls, just like the Cats & Dogs Jam (see p. 28).

The concept of this kind of Style-battle is invented by a group called Jazzstylecorner, Berlin.

1st Round Simple Style

2nd Round Connect 2 Letters

3rd Round Tags

Final Alphabet, Single Letter, Blind Writing

Winners 1. MSX, 2. Dask, 3. Asem

The Stylebattle wasn't the only graffiti action that day at Tacheles. We invited ladies from all over the world to celebrate women in hip hop (and especially in graffiti) with us.

We were very, very happy that so many skillfull ladies came by and made their mark.

Big Shout out to: Faith47, Mickey, Spice, Flai, Musa, Numi, Malicia, Pilitrix, Yeah, Qge, MSCR, Winter, Fany, Asem, Chika, Toofly, Alice, Pussyz Soulfood, MSX and the girls that joined in...

ACB (+)

On November 19th 2006, 25 year old ACB from Chile passed away after fighting a battle she could never win. That day cancer took her away from the people she loved. She still is an inspiration to the people she met during her life and her spirit will live on as long as we remember her.

Rest in peace ACB.

August 29. 2008

As part of the one month female hiphop festival We B*GirLz, a bunch of girls gathered at the Casseopeia on the day of the concerts.

Together we made an all girls wall with the left-overs from the jam the day before plus some of our own paint.

Our painting session finished just before the best concerts started.

Cats & Dogs

July 19th 2008

Strandbad Weissensee, Berlin

The first Catfight jam ever was held in Berlin last July. It was special in many ways, but most of all it was special because it was the first one of a series of jams that doesn't invite either only boys or only girls to paint. Cats & Dogs stands for a mellow atmosphere where every openminded writer can show their skillz.

Make sure to check out the site: there are more jams coming up!
