Night Rider

WE CAPTURE THE TRUE ESSENCE OF A CULTURE THAT RESIDES ON THE FRINGES OF NORMALITY. NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEART OR THE MASS FOLLOWER, WE CREATE FOR THOSE WHO SEEK AN ALTERNATIVE. IN SHORT, WE ARE THE GENUINE ARTICLE.

CONTRIBUTORS

GREG MANIS was born and raised in Northwest Georgia and his photos tell the tale of his upbringing with a raw yet romantic passion. Manis came to New York City after graduating from Savannah College of Art & Design, and is now making a name for himself. He has had his work published in books, various magazines (such as V and Nylon), and shown in galleries around the world.

ISAAC JOEL TORRES is a new Chicago based, colorblind photographer who has already made a name for himself and has been published in several magazines. Because he has no proper education he had to develop his own style using mainly ambient light. The fact that he is colorblind and his ability to use his different view on the colorful world we live in is an opportunity rather than a handicap.

LIZ BESANSON is a fashion and editorial photographer who also enjoys shooting alternative models, that's why she's here. Recently, Besanson has opened up her own studio in Wilmington, Delaware and shoots for various clothing companies, boutiques and cosmetic lines. Her goal is to work alongside some of her favorite designers and shoot for leading model agencies.

JILLIAN HUGHES was raised in the "City that Bleeds," and now resides in the City of Angels, where she is expanding the boundaries of her photographic vision and she explores her passion for pin up girls and other tattooed dames (often under the name Bombs Over Betty). Hughes also works at Feldman's Tattoo Parlor, loves her two pups and will never get enough of The Golden Girls.

ALEXANDER THOMPSON is a freelance photographer living in Brooklyn, NY. His images have appeared in various publications, including Spin, V, Black Book, I.D., Tokion and Paper. When not shooting beautiful tattooed women, he enjoys shooting the underground US Rockabilly scene and looks forward to his extensive archive being published one day.

BRADLEY MEINZ was born left handed February 1, 1972. He earned his BFA in photography from MIAD who's motto is: "honor your truth" and now works out of LA. Meinz's photographs are defined through his ability to breath with his subjects. He has been published in such magazines as Rolling Stone, Heeb, People, Esquire, The Advocate, TV Guide, Empire, Neon and Time Out NY.

INK WELL

Have you ever picked up Inked Girls?

Hell yes.

Nope, but I'm excited to read this issue.

This is the same magazine?

Did you notice that we changed the logo?

Well, unfortunately there is nothing to read— words would have just gotten in the way of our 91 pages of hot girls.

*What logo?
I was transfixed by the blonde with amazing ink.*

What's this magazine all about?

Carry on, her feature starts on page 50.

We are dedicated to delivering to you the hottest women with the coolest tattoos.

Really? What are you waiting for? Turn to page 50 already.

Where are you from?

Yes, it's the same staff and publisher.

West Coast.

New England.

Anywhere else.

The 1920's.

Sick! Anything set this issue apart from the previous?

Wicked! Anything set this issue apart from the previous?

Cool! Anything set this issue apart from the previous?

That's the cat's pajamas! Anything set this issue apart from the previous?

And that's it, no other changes?

Well this issue features more girls than any previous version of the magazine. And with such an array in this, our best issue yet, you can choose your own adventure.
