SEAN ROSENTHAL is a photographer from Costa Mesa, CA. His original interests in photography began in the mid 90's when he started capturing hardcore bands and making fanzines. He continued photographing while he traveled as a touring musician himself. He has since traded in the music for art, establishing his own design firm while continuing to wield the lens.

AURELIE DAVIS has found herself in Los Angeles by way of Mexico City. Davis enjoys taking an unconventional approach when shooting an otherwise traditional scene, from buidoir to brides, fashion to funerals. Aurelie Davis founded her studio, Pola Bare Photography, as a means to express her delightfully rebellious nature and continue her photographic endeavours.

HAROLD PASION was born and raised on the island of Guam and moved to the states in 2001. This polaroid-loving self-taught photographer is currently based in Las Vegas, NV. Now mainly focusing on fashion and art photography, Harold cultivates his admiration for all that is vintage and an obsession with the best decade ever, of course, the 80's.

MIKE LERNER is a 26 year old photographer based out of Brooklyn, NY. Having just gotten back from spending 3 months on tour as Justin Bieber's personal photographer and photographing Katy Perry in London on film due to battery theft, Mike figured out that he truly loves two things— tattoos and girls. While Mike still enjoys music photography, he is focusing his efforts on editorial work.

INK WELL

Above are the tattooed girls and guy behind the men behind Inked Girls. For those who wonder what it's like working on Inked Girls we thought we'd give our interns an opportunity to step out from behind the copy machine and give you their opinion of what it's like living the dream (for college credit). "I couldn't imagine having a better boss than Todd," Delores says. "And Josh has really taught me the finer points of photography that I didn't get in school like the rule of thirds," Mike adds. "Justin has by far the best hair on staff," Sarah gushes. Then Rose inserts, "Rocky is so witty that we let him write these quotes for us."

It should be noted that the interns were too busy seeking out the hottest young photographers and tattooed women on the planet to approve the above quotes. It's a demanding but a pleasurable experience to work on Inked Girls. We appreciate that you spend your hard-earned money on this magazine and we feel it is our duty to match your effort on our jobs. The fruits of this month's labor produced stunning photography of Rhian, Madelyn and our first ever tandem shoot of the lovely Hattie and Alysha. Please take an excursion from your life and dive into the issue. I too have to take a quick break—I'm starting to see my co-worker's faces on the bodies of inked girls.

INKED GIRLS SCENE | EVENTS

WE WANNA BE BAD...

It's only once a year that Dennis Rodman celebrates a birthday... It's only once in a lifetime that Inked Girls comes out to make sure the celebration is special. Sailor Jerry Rum fueled the bus ride to the Axe Lounge at Dune Southampton where our girls made sure that D-Rod's 50th birthday would be one to remember. The brought out all the finest D's (Drinking, Dancing, Dennis, and... well you can see the rest for yourself). Thankfully, the bus was stocked with Vita Coco Coconut Water for the trip home.

A CAUSE YOU CAN ROCK TO

Rachel Lay, featured in the last issue of Inked Girls and tattooed star of the VH1 hit series Saddle Ranch, served as host to Rock The Cause. There could be no better place than Beta Records to house the event, with cocktails provided by Tres Sietes Tequila were served as guests celebrated the launch of Evil Pawn Jewelry's latest collection; all proceeds from the night went to VH1 Save the Music Foundation.
