CONTRIBUTORS

Born and raised in Los Angeles, ESTEVAN ORIOL pulls inspiration from the city and reflects its sensibilities in his work. Oriol believes that Southern California juxtaposes the glitzy and the gritty more than anyplace on Earth, and those extremes are visible in his execution. Whether he's photographing gang life, a fashion model, Dr. Dre, or an Inked Girl there is a voice in his work that is distinctly LA bred. His photographs have been featured in INKED, Complex, GQ, Rolling Stone, and dozens more. He is currently releasing his two new books titled LA Portraits and LA Woman 2. estevanoriol.com

GAVIN THOMAS is from a small town outside of Rochester, NY. A graduate of Rochester Institute of Technology, he has been shooting in New York City since 2008. Using both digital and analog cameras, Thomas has created a diverse and unique style that is bold and in your face. In addition to having clients like Marie Claire, New York Magazine, AOL, and Crocs, Gavin's work has appeared all around the world from Japan to Hong Kong to Australia and numerous outlets throughout Europe. He shot Justin Bieber before the kid got cocky. gavinthomasphoto.com

JAMES OLIVEIRA is a self taught freelance photographer based in the Los Angeles area. Oliveira enjoys shooting bands, models, as well as street photography. He has been published both domestically and internationally in Japan where he has shot live bands for Cure, a Tokyo-based music magazine. His work can also be seen in Rabid and Alternative Revolution magazines, and lives with a dream to one day have people recognize his work worldwide. Whether it will be his photos of street life in the dirty city or sexy girl photography he'll realize that dream. jamesoliveira.com

RYLE WATSON is a beauty and lifestyle photographer based out of New York City. Born in Barbados W.I., Watson has had a passion for the arts from a very young age and he often credits his artistic nature to his native island. Being the apprentice of acclaimed photographer Keith Major, Watson is progressing as a photographer capable of producing well beyond his years would indicate. Quality, creativity, and progression are the key factors that are instilled in all of his photographs. rylewatson.com

Born and raised in South San Diego with a love for the unusual, VICTOR RODRIGUEZ was always attracted to bold, attention-grabbing imagery. Realizing manual labor wasn't for him, Rodriguez picked up a camera, went to school at Brooks Institute for Photography, and moved to Los Angeles. He engages the viewer with his subjects and chips away at what's underneath. vWhen not photographing "rad babes," he can be found stuffing his face and watching bad horror movies. victorrodriguezphoto.com

TOMASSO MEI's suitcase and camera bag are always ready. He's shot celebrity editorials and advertising in Europe, USA and South America. The Italian shutterbug is in love with wandering this life but is also smitten with his new hometown of Los Angeles. Other than snapping compelling photos of soccer stars, sexy women, and rockabilly culture, he derives pleasure from red wine, tattoos, men's suits, his classic 1992 convertible Saab and since he's moved to LA he has begun a serious relationship with burgers. tommasomei.com

Steadfast Brand

We are constantly expanding our line to include more unusual and talented artists and their work. What started with our own designs and the art of a few close friends is now growing into what we wanted all along: a line that reflects the people we meet and the experiences we have. Industry Owned & Operated.
