CONTRIBUTORS

ANDREA TAFFELLI is an alternative photographer, musician and full of dreams. He was born in Novara, Italy 26 years ago, but recently moved to London. In 2013 he started to work as a freelance photographer with Minu Catelli, an old friend and a great talent. He spent these past two years chasing models, new friends, and wonderful experiences... "leading us to improve and to know the 'new world' made by alternative models, photographers, magical unicorns and real mules. Thanks to Inked Girls magazine for my first publication in a magazine."

MIKE MATOS is a native of the NYC "tri-state area," served his country, and has lived on the East Coast ever since. Matos is self-taught and has been seriously involved in photography since 2012. What started with retouching moved into digital photography. His first opportunity was working alongside the Editor in Chief of Karin & Raoul Magazine as a retoucher all the while honing his skills as a lifestyle photographer. You can see most of his current work on his Instagram (@_mikematos) and he is currently a contributing photographer with uniisonmagazine.com and coyculture.com mportraiture.tumblr.com

SUNNIE RIZZOLO lives her life by the Law of Attraction and is always giving off positive energy. She uses her camera to empower women. Sunshine has found one of her greatest creative outlets as one of the staff photographers for SuicideGirls.com for which she has been a model, a model recruiter, and a staff photographer. Although Rizzolo is based out of Santa Cruz, she has been living nomadically for the past three years, traveling in her van with her partner and her dog; capturing images of unique women in interesting settings all over the US. sunnierizzolophotography.com

GLENN WALLACE is a self-taught photographer, with a degree in videography. He enjoys being able to express his creativity and prides himself on working with natural light. Wallace really digs working on location as he has an obsession with nature. He aims to showcase the individuality of each girl and set-up. When not attached to his camera—or on laptop editing—Wallace can be found screaming at the TV while watching his favorite football team Manchester United. He's a good photographer but even he can't make Wayne Rooney look attractive. instagram.com/creative_instincts

VICTOR RODRIGUEZ was born and raised in South San Diego with a love for the unusual. During his upbringing, Rodriguez was always looking for a creative outlet, and after realizing that manual labor wasn't for him, he picked up a camera and moved to Los Angeles. In this installment he captures the alluring Ashley Nichole Shelton among the surf. He fills the frame with a delicate balance between the hard rocks of the shore and her soft body. When not photographing rad tattooed babes, he can be found stuffing his face, hanging out with his cats, and watching bad horror movies. victorrodriguezphoto.com

STEPHAN "KNIGHT" JEANPIERRE began his journey as an artist in a small boarding school in the mountains of Switzerland. Deciding between astrophysics and filmmaking, he elected to make movies about going to the moon instead of actually going there. After a short stay in New York and finally ending up at the Academy of Art University, he created his personal brand, "Vizual Jockey" at the age of 20 which gradually solidified his style and place among fellow Bay Area filmmakers and photographers over the past five years.
