From New York from the heart..

A new issue of Tattoo Collection is finally ready to go to press, and here we are with the traditional special editorial to tell you what wonders to expect inside. Starting, of course, with the list of twenty-four galleries contained here. Galleries presenting the best that tattoo art has to offer from studios and parlours all around the world. And this time you may find it opens your eyes to subjects you'd never come across before now. And just for the record, the long list includes Anchors, Angels, Biomechanical, Candles, Cards, Carp, Cats, Chicano, Chrysanthemums, Dogs, Dragons, Eagles, Eyes, Hearts, Horror, Horses, Insects, Owls, Plants, Skulls, Traditional, Tribal, Wings and Women. A vast assortment there's no doubt about it, but the question is still the same: why are we showing you so many incredible tattoos? The answer is simple: because your enthusiasm shows no sign of waning and actually seems to know no limits. Further proof was provided by some of the opinions expressed at the last NYC Tattoo Convention which took place in the legendary Big Apple. That's where we met up with Lucy (from England) who told us about the neverending journey she'd undertaken to get to New York so her favourite artist could finish the wings on her phoenix. 'It's taken 35 hours to get this far,' she said, 'and another eight and my tattoo will be finished. Tired? Not a bit of it, I'd do it all again in a heartbeat!' Tangible proof of devotion to the art, which, in the case of an American, Rosemarie, was stronger than family ties. 'I had to get a divorce eight years ago to get my first tattoos!

My ex kept on telling me: 'I could never be with a woman who loves getting tattooed.' Well, I left him without thinking twice about it because a tattoo is something that goes way beyond the concept of passion...! What can we say except that in the face of comments like these we couldn't be any happier to be presenting you with a magazine like Tattoo Collection. Here, it's the genuine passion for tattoos that's behind that loyalty to the beloved ally on our skin that will follow us for the rest of our lives. That's why we'd like to dedicate this editorial to the testimonial of two real tattoo lovers like Lucy and Rosemarie and wish hours of pleasure to all of you who have already started leafing avidly through the magazine. May the ink enlighten you!
