1/72 WARBIRDS

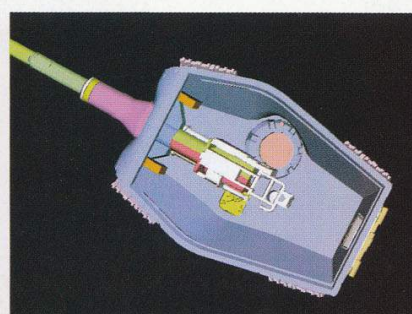

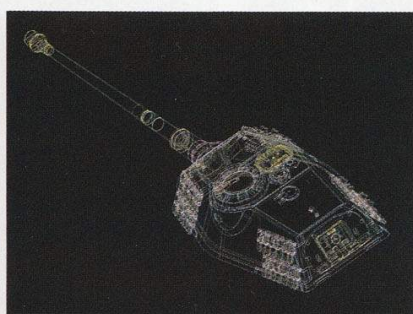

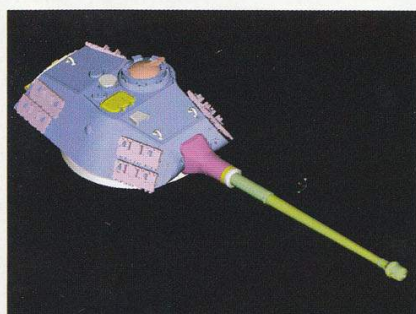

From Anzio to Aachen, the Battle of Saipan to the Battle of the Bulge ...

... 1944 was arguably the most pivotal year of World War II. When the year began, Hitler's Germany still controlled all of Western Europe and Italy; by year's end, Allied troops had already pushed through the Siegfried line into the German homeland itself.

To commemorate the 60th Anniversary of this seminal year in WWII history, Dragon Models Limited will be announcing several brand new model kits throughout 2004 -- all based around the major battles of 1944! Each new model kit will feature DML's signature commitment to realism and attention to fine detail, as well as the very latest in scale modelling technologies ... all designed to give your displays and dioramas the utmost in realistic appearance and historical accuracy!

DML in 2004 -- commemorating the past ... with technology of the future!
